The program: You will undertake guided activities in small groups that will enable you to practise speaking and listening to French as you seek directions, find places of interest, find the best places to eat, etc. in the wonderful city of Toulouse, la Ville Rose, which is the third most visited city in France. The afternoon session will feature the movie 'Haute Cuisine', followed by group discussion. Based on a true character—a woman who became President Mitterrand's private cook—the movie has some wonderful scenery, uses a reasonably accessible level of French, and showcases many of the classic attitudes the French hold to food.

A light lunch and tea and coffee will be provided .
